

Club Journal

July 2016

The magazine for all CIU members

75p

Former Union President Derek Dormer OBE, CMD celebrates his 90th birthday

Left to right: General Secretary Kenneth D Green CMD, Union President George Dawson CMD, former Union President Derek Dormer OBE, CMD and Union Vice-President John Tobin

Former Union President Derek Dormer OBE, CMD recently celebrated his 90th birthday with a party at Higham Ferrers Working Mens Club in Rushden, Northamptonshire.

Among the many guests marking Derek's milestone birthday were the Officers of the CIU, President George Dawson CMD, Vice-President John Tobin and General Secretary Kenneth D Green CMD.

"I had a fabulous time at the party with my friends and family," said Derek. "I was very grateful to the current President of the Union, the Vice-President and the General Secretary for all coming to help me celebrate as the CIU has always been a huge part of my life."

Derek served as President of the Union from 1981 to 2003, having previously served as Vice-President from 1970-1981 and was appointed an Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) in 1991.

Derek continues to play an active role as a clubman and has been on the Committee of Higham Ferrers WMC for the past 52 years.

He is also a very familiar face on CIU Conference Weekends and has not missed a single Annual Meeting in the past 62 years.

Indeed, he was one of the speakers at the 2015 Annual Meeting in Blackpool.

CIU Charity Raceday set for November 12

The CIU National Charity Raceday will take place at Wetherby Racecourse on Saturday November 12.

Next month's issue will have details on tickets for this unmissable annual Union event. The special deal will include entry to the dedicated CIU marquee next to the Winners Enclosure, as well as a food and drink offer.

INSIDE...

Editor's Letter	2
Club News	3
CIU Racing Club	9
Club of the Month	10
HQ	14
Club Outings	18
Crossword	21
Sport on TV	22
CIU Sport	23

Sea Angling win for Twerton Liberal Club

Twerton Liberal Club in Bath took the honours at the South Wales & Monmouthshire Sea Angling competition held at Cold Knap, Glamorgan on June 12.

They won the team prize for the second year running with a weight of 1 kg, 600 grams, while they also supplied the Individual Winner in P Thomas.

Barry West End Club 'A' were the runners-up in the team category.

A total of 62 anglers took part in this annual competition.