The nomination papers for the Union's Presidential and NEC elections will need to be returned by October 9

Countdown begins to 2015 NEC and Presidential election

Nomination papers for the 2015 Presidential and National Executive Council (NEC) election have now been sent out to every CIU club with the deadline date for nominations to be returned set for Friday, October 9.

The elections will take place in December for the 12 National Executive positions as well as for the roles of National President and Vice-President.

This reduction from the current 13 NEC seats stems from the fact that the electoral district of Durham/Cleveland has fallen below the 200-club threshold required to have two representatives on the NEC.

All members are being urged to make their vote count in the coming election and have their say on the future direction of the Union.

EDITOR'S LETTER

Welcome to the October issue of Club Journal.

It's election time once again as the Union's members vote for their Presidential and NEC representatives. As you'll see from the timeline on the front page, the nomination papers went out to clubs in September and will be returned by October 9.

Ballot papers will be issued next month to be returned to Head Office by December 7 with the ballot count and official release of the results taking place on December 9 and 10 respectively.

It has certainly been a busy time at Head Office recently and I'm delighted to announce that we have produced several HR documents which will be of invaluable help to our clubs in dealing with staff issues.

As well as the Club Staff Handbook, we have also produced a Club Steward Contract, a Bar Manager Contract, a Bar/Cleaning Staff Contract and Terms and Conditions booklets for Bar/Cleaning Staff and Temporary Bar/Cleaning Staff.

The Handbook is priced at £5; £2.50 for each Contract; £1.50 for each Terms and Conditions document.

These have all been fully updated to current legislative requirements and produced to a high, professional standard – see page 15 for more details.

We have also produced new Education Workbooks and these will be unveiled at the Branch Secretary Event taking place at Head Office this month.

By the way, thank you to all the clubs who submitted photographs to feature in the Official CIU Calendar sponsored by Aon. You'll see all the winning selections when the calendar goes on sale next month, so look out for details in the next issue.

Looking ahead, the Dransfields CIU Charity Raceday – the highlight of the Union's sporting calendar – will be staged at Wetherby Racecourse on Saturday, November 14.

It's always a great atmosphere in the exclusive CIU Paddock Marquee so bring along as many members as you can to this fantastic occasion which benefits the CIU

Education Programme – the booking form is in the Racing Club supplement that came with this issue.

Talking of great sporting occasions, thanks to all the members who came along to Owlerton Greyhound Stadium in Sheffield in September for the Dransfields CIU Racenight. In addition to Dransfields, special thanks must go to the Trade Sponsors who supported the night - BOC, ABV Wholesaler, Carlsberg UK and the Co-Operative Bank.

TRADE NEWS

Heineken offers BT Sport discount to trade customers

Heineken has signed an exclusive deal with BT Sport to offer Heineken on-trade customers discounted BT Sport Total subscriptions.

With discounts of up to 50% available to Heineken customers, the new deal offers the most affordable package for clubs looking to boost their profits.

BT is the only provider with screening rights for all midweek UEFA Champions League and UEFA Europa League football, and will also show 38 Barclays Premier League matches, ensuring that customers who take up the Heineken/BT Sport offer will have significant opportunities to grow their businesses, driving customers through the door during the midweek evenings. Champions League football is no longer available on other channels this season, meaning many fans are more likely to visit their local club for prime matches featuring Europe's top clubs.

Live rugby, including matches from the Aviva Premiership Rugby, European Rugby Champions and Challenge Cups, and other popular sporting events such as MotoGP and NBA, will provide further opportunities for clubs to draw in the crowds and create occasions that encourage customers to trade up.

The deal follows a three tier structure with 30%, 40% and 50% discounts off a fully comprehensive BT Sport Total package, offered to customers depending on their stock agreements with Heineken.

Lawson Mountstevens, on-trade sales director at Heineken, said: "The background to this deal is really simple – we want to help our trade customers grow their businesses. This new partnership provides them with a real opportunity to attract consumers to visit their local pubs at otherwise quieter times."

LARK IN THE PARK AT PARADISE WMC

On Saturday, August 8, the Paradise Working Men's Club, Burnley, entertained the local community with their second 'Lark in the Park' event following on from the hugely successful inaugural event staged last year.

The club's car park was transformed into an outdoor music festival with a number of up-and-coming live bands performing on the stage to the delight of the crowd who were enjoying some glorious sunny weather.

The event was a real family affair and children were able to amuse themselves by playing on a 35-foot inflatable galleon, climbing a velcro 'fly wall' or seeking treasure by having a bash at the treasure chest pinata.

The event was brought to a close by the headliners, Yorkshire rock band Roadkill.

Once the live music was over, a spectacular fireworks display at 9.30pm marked the conclusion of the 2015 'Lark in the Park' after which time the revellers moved inside the club to take part in a karaoke session.

Club Vice-President Yvette Johnson was the chief organiser of a great event which looks set to become a much-anticipated annual fixture in the local diary.

REMEMBRANCE - A CLUB IN A MILLION

The Remembrance Club in Castle Bromwich, West Midlands, continues to go from strength to strength with its 1,000-plus members enjoying a wide array of activities and top-class live entertainment

Despite the closure of several clubs around the West Midlands area in recent years, the Remembrance Club in Castle Bromwich on the outskirts of Birmingham continues to go from strength to strength.

The club boasts 1,000-plus members and is managed by a strong and resourceful Management Committee under the leadership of Club President John Ford.

Indeed, such is the attraction of the club that it has a waiting list of prospective members and each new member is vetted by the Club Committee.

Going back to the beginning, the Remembrance Club was formed in 1922 by local people as a British Legion club and moved to its current location in 1947 when Lord Bradford agreed to rent the club a solidly built four-roomed 19th Century house which overlooked open countryside on the edge of Castle Bromwich.

The club purchased the lease in 1952 for the sum of £4,500 and in 1962 became affiliated to the CIU. Former Club Secretary Len Spiers says: "This was the best thing that ever happened for this club and we would not be where we are today if we had not become affiliated."

Following affiliation, the membership began to increase to such an extent that the club needed to extend its premises. To help raise the funds for the extension, each member contributed a pound apiece to purchase a brick.

Since then, the club has been further improved and updated. Club security is regarded as of paramount importance so each member is issued with a key card which bears their photograph and gives them access. The Committee has also invested in CCTV cameras which cover the entrance and car park areas.

The Club Officers today comprise of President John Ford, Vice-President Mick Showering, Secretary Val McConnell, Assistant Secretary Lesley Burrows and Treasurer June Bradley. They have now worked together for a number of years, resulting in an exceptionally well-run and well-appointed club.

The club's wide array of activities are well supported by members and the full air-conditioned Concert Room, which seats 200 people, is utilised most weekday evenings with bingo and carpet bowls taking place in this impressive space.

On Saturday and Sunday evenings, live entertainment takes over the Concert Room with a variety of crowd-pulling acts, booked by Vice-President Mick Showering, taking to the stage.

The hub of the club is the large and well-furnished Lounge which also provides live entertainment on Thursday and Sunday evenings.

Other facilities enjoyed by members include a bar with large screen television.

Club Steward Alan Jephcott and his wife Jean are integral to the success of the club and their stewardship helps to ensure that the club is packed throughout the week.

One particular noteworthy success is the Sunday Carvery for which booking is now essential. Most recently, the club has started offering a Wednesday evening menu which is becoming increasingly popular.

Justifiably proud of their facilities, the club would be delighted to give a warm welcome to any CIU members who find themselves in the Birmingham area.

ANY QUESTIONS?

Club Journal's panel of experts is ready to answer any of your queries regarding running your club

A thorough safety check needs to be undertaken before holding a Fireworks Night party at your club

Q We're holding a Fireworks Night party next month at our club so is there anything we should be bearing in mind insurance-wise?

Andy Kitchener, Regional Client Manager of CIU Preferred Supplier Aon UK Limited, responds:

Clubs want to protect staff, members and guests from harm or damage at all times. Fireworks night has its own particular implications so it's worth doing a thorough check through your safety procedures as well as being clear where you would stand with your insurance policy if anything went wrong.

To make sure that Public Liability Cover remains fully in force you will need to comply with the policy conditions of your insurance.

Below is a list of tips we have compiled designed to help protect you during bonfire and firework displays, but please do check the specifics of your policy before holding an event.

- Use experts – Certain fireworks may only be used if you have a qualified pyrotechnic technician to co-ordinate the display. This co-ordinator will be required to hold valid Public Liability insurance in respect of this activity.

“To make sure that Public Liability Cover remains fully in force during a fireworks party you will need to comply with the policy conditions of your insurance”

- Keep people at a safe distance – Spectators should be kept at a safe distance from the bonfire and fireworks and behind a rope or other barrier.
- Store safely – Fireworks should be kept in a closed metal box when not being used. Fireworks are stored and lit a safe distance from the bonfire.

- Inform the emergency services – The Fire Brigade and Police should be notified prior to any event and if they give you advice then you should comply with it fully.

- First aid – First aid facilities should be provided for the duration of any display.

As always, clubs will no doubt apply common sense to ensure that these events go as smoothly and safely as possible with minimal risks to all involved. Wishing you a safe, successful and stress free bonfire night.

By installing solar panels, Dunstable United Services Club has reduced its electricity spending from 12.49 pence per kilowatt to 6.3 pence per kilowatt

Q Our club is thinking about getting free solar panels installed on the roof but I've heard that the Government is changing the subsidies for solar power – will this affect us?

Amy Alvarez, Marketing and Commercial Manager of CIU Preferred Supplier Smart Energy, replies:

We can still offer free solar panels to CIU clubs for a limited time with the Government's proposed cuts to the Feed-in Tariff scheme due to come into effect in January 2016.

At the moment there are no payments as the solar is completely free to the club. If you qualify you have no costs – not even maintenance costs – so it really is absolutely free. For example, we have just installed free funded panels at Dunstable United Services Club in Bedford and they are expected to save £2,300 in the first year with their electricity spend going from 12.49 pence per kilowatt to 6.3 pence per kilowatt.

How can it be free and is there a catch?

There is presently an opportunity to install free Solar PV at your Club. The system will be paid for by a third party trust fund which in turn gets paid over time from the Government's 'feed-in' tariff.

Depending on the package that suits you best determines how much free electricity is generated for the club but regardless of your choice the club is guaranteed to reduce its overall electricity costs with the installation of free solar panels.

How realistic is our chance of getting it?

You still have a very good chance of taking advantages of the scheme until the end of this year whilst the Purchase Power Agreement (PPA) tariffs are still very good.

“After installing solar, Dunstable USC are expected to save £2,300 in the first year, reducing their electricity spend from 12.49p per kw to 6.3p per kw”

So, what is the criteria and how do we apply?

Solar PV can be installed on sites with suitable roof structures and orientation that can accommodate a minimum of 20kw of PV cells and mostly south facing. The operation and maintenance requirements for the life of the agreement, 20 years, will be covered as an expenditure item by the fund.

The fund retains the Feed-In and Export Tariff to recover the capital expenditure and on-going maintenance costs of the Solar PV whilst the club gets the electricity it generates through the package that has been agreed.

What is the availability?

There is now limited availability and should you want solar for your club you will need to act now or risk missing out when the Government cuts come into effect next year.

How much will we save?

We will provide your club with an analysis saving sheet but be assured you will save many thousands of pounds over the coming years.

What do we need to meet the criteria?

You will need to own the building and you will need your club to have a Land Registry number, 12 months of electric bills and a clean mortgage with no loans against the building in order for your application to sail through within a four-week time frame.

How do we get the process started?

Contact Amy at Smart Energy on 0800 0730041 or email: info@smartenergyprojects.co.uk and we will conduct a free site survey of your roof and a volt test to check your incoming supply. Then you could follow in the footsteps of Dunstable United Services Club who are over the moon with their installation and the savings it has made for them, reducing their electricity spend by over 50 per cent.

Do you have a club-related problem that you think the Club Journal expert panel can help you with? If so, please send your question or query to justin@clubjournal.co.uk and we'll help you get the advice you need.

New Education Workbooks

The new CIU Education Workbooks will be unveiled at the Branch Secretary Event at Head Office in October.

This is part of the National Executive's overhauling of the Union's education programme which will enable more of our members to have the chance to develop the necessary knowledge to help them run clubs more profitably and efficiently.

Pilot schemes will be rolled out across several regions by the end of the year.

Arbitration advice set for update

The Union will be revising its arbitration guidance and will be arranging pilot schemes in conjunction with specialist John Vanderwolfe in order to help clubs with any disciplinary, employment or contractual issues they may be facing.

The Union's arbitration service enables member clubs to fulfil their obligations required under their rule book at a minimal cost - something which clubs may find difficult and costly to provide independently.

Dransfields CIU Charity Raceday

Dransfields CIU Charity Raceday takes place at Wetherby Racecourse on Saturday, November 14 and promises a fantastic day out at the races for Union members who can enjoy the fantastic atmosphere in the exclusive CIU Paddock Marquee

Enjoy a great day out in the CIU Paddock Marquee at Wetherby

The annual Dransfields CIU Charity Raceday takes place on Saturday, November 14 at Wetherby Racecourse.

This is one of the highlights of the CIU's sporting calendar with clubs from all over the country heading to Yorkshire to enjoy a superb day's hospitality in the Union's exclusive marquee adjacent to the racetrack.

It's also a bumper day for charity with the 2014 event raising over £3,500 for the CIU Education Programme thanks to donations from Wetherby Racecourse itself and their official caterers for every Union member who attends.

Indeed, some 1,843 members attended the 2014 event with Farsley WMC bringing a mighty contingent of 257 racegoers along.

Hopes are high that this year's attendance for the seven-race event will top the 2,000 mark which would be a major boost for the Union's nominated charity.

Following last year's event, Union President George Dawson CMD said: "It was marvellous to see so many clubs getting behind our Charity Raceday and raising a record sum for the CIU Education Programme.

"The event is going from strength to strength and I'm determined that we should continue to build on this success with the aim of bringing over 2,000 Union members to Wetherby in the 2015 event."

This year's Raceday costs £15 per person which includes a bespoke badge giving admission to the racecourse and the exclusive CIU Paddock Marquee, an Official Race Programme, a Pie and Peas voucher and a set of '50p off a pint' vouchers courtesy of Heineken who are supporting the day.

So why not bring along members from your club for what is will be a fantastic day out at the races?

£15 per person

- Admission to racecourse and CIU Paddock Marquee
- Official Race Programme
- Pie and Peas Voucher
- Set of '50p off a pint' Vouchers

MEMBERS' CORNER

Informative articles which affect our life by Dione Mobley

To mark the recent celebrations that marked six decades on the throne by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, this month's article is taking a peek at just a few things which go on behind the scenes of this truly great monarch.

The Queen has answered approximately 3.5 million pieces of correspondence during her reign. As a great ambassador for Britain and the Commonwealth she hosts on average 30,000 people each year attending Royal Garden Parties or investitures, usually held at Buckingham Palace.

Representing England by travelling to many different countries during her long reign, Queen Elizabeth has received and greeted a staggering 1.5 million guests and still entertains a substantial number of dignitaries and heads of state throughout the year.

The Queen is reported to have 200 hundred racing pigeons housed in the grounds at her Sandringham estate and likes to receive regular updates from her estate managers on their wellbeing.

There are 1,000 working clocks in the royal residences. However, the Queen's own piper has the responsibility to play the bagpipes beneath the Queen's window every morning as her personal alarm to start her day.

Her grandson and the heir to the British throne Prince William recently stated he felt he was privileged to have the Queen as his role model for a life of service to the country.

At the end of each year our family always look forward to that day in December when we all get together to settle down in front of the TV after eating the turkey and all feeling very full, to watch the Queen's speech.

I have done this for countless years and this always makes me feel so very British.
